Fight with the Indians---Our Troops Victorious.

By Telegraph to the News.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 10.—A despatch from General Howard dated Head of Birch Creek, July 8th, says: "We found the Indians at the Head of Butte Creek to-day, and advanced in two columns, one under Throckmorton of two companies of artillery, one infantry and a few volunteers; the other under Bernard, of seven companies of cavalry and twenty of Robbins' scouts. Howard accompanied the latter. Bernard's scouts notified him of the vicinity of the hostiles, when the cavalry moved forward at a trot over the three hills, each over a mile in ascent. The Indians were strongly posted on a rocky crest. One company was left with the pack train, and the other deployed and advanced handsomely under a heavy fire. The enemy was driven from its position to another height in rear of a greater elevation and crowned with a natural defence of Lava beds. In twenty minutes this position was also stormed from different sides at once, and a rapid pursuit commenced of flying Indians, who abandoned horses, provisions, ammunition and camp material. The hostiles made for the thick timber crowning blue ridge, and made another stand, but were again dislodged and pushed four or five miles further into the mountains. Rough country and great exhaustion of men and horses caused a cessation of pursuit for the day. During the engagement five enlisted men were wounded and about twenty horses killed. It is impossible to state the loss of the enemy. Their women, children, and best horses moved before the fight began apparently in the direction of Grande Ronde, and the hostiles fled in that direction.

The Anglo-Turkish Treaty.

By Cable to the News.

LONDON, July 10—A Times Berlin correspondent says the date for the publication of the Anglo-Turkish treaty is supposed to have been selected with a view to avoid ulterior complications. If the Berlin peace is signed by Russia with the knowledge of the existence of the Anglo-Turkish treaty a latter treaty cannot hereafter be alleged by Russia as reason for impugning the validity of the Berlin instrument, whereas should Russia now decline to adhere to the Berlin treaty unless modified to suit the position, which supervened since publication of the Anglo-Turkish treaty she must prepare for troubles she wished to avoid when going to Berlin. It is understood that the French Government is going to ask, or already have asked Russia, whether she does not prefer abandoning the idea of Asiatic annexation rather than see the Cyprus treaty carried into effect. Should this question be negatived, France, it is though, may adopt a more active policy.

A Berlin dispatch says Russian delegates will not protest against the occupation of Cyprus.

The Peace Congress---Beaconsfield's Coup.

By Cable to the News.

LONDON, July 10.—Beaconsfield's coup has thrown into the shade all other topics, but it is yet too soon to judge in what direction the current of the continent will take.

The Times' Berlin correspondent says that when the Anglo-Turkish convention was first announced there, English diplomacy enjoyed a prestige such as it had not enjoyed for a long time, but later some dissentient voices were heard. The coup, said some, is undoubtedly clever, but it is questioned whether in the long run it will redound to the honor and interest of England. Others still speak of the event with unqualified admiration.

The Vienna Presse says. "We cannot but hail with sincere satisfaction this victory even without bloodshed by English policy over the Eastern question, for the existence of Turkey, so frail, when she herself is her sole support, will, under the energetic protection of England, be able to be maintained for long years."

War's Horrors---Narrative of Bulgarian Atrocities.

By Cable to the News.

LONDON, July 10.—A Constantinople despatch to the Times says: Mr. Fawcett has returned from Sagos, and reports the intense sufferings which exists among the population South of the Rhodope Mountains. He enumerates horrors perpetrated by the Bulgarians and Cossacks, and sometimes by regular Russian soldiers, whose design seems to be the extermination or utter dispersion of Mussulmans and Christians favorable to them. In Domoda district fifty-three villages have been plundered and burnt by Russian and Bulgarian troops. Within the last two months twenty-three villages have been equally laid waste and burnt in the district of Haskier, and in Philipoppalis districts twelve villages have been burnt. In numerous villages there has been wanton destruction, attended by deeds of unheard of barbarity. Cases of men and women deliberately burnt alive have been frequent. Violation of young girls has also been very frequent. Nothing more horrible than the particulars of this report can be imagined. Its veracity rests on the official authority of one of the most respected of Her Majesty's servants, and of men employed by him, upon his conviction of their perfect trustworthiness.

Fawcett intends to lay his report before the English, Austrian and French ambassadors, with a view to sending out a commission of inquiry to the spot, to endeavor to put an end to these excesses.

The Director of the Mint to-day received a letter from San Francisco, dated 2nd inst., stating that forty thousand standard silver dollars were exchanged at the mint that day, for corresponding sum in gold coin. This is regarded as showing that certificates issued at San Francisco for silver dollars deposited there can be used in New York for payment of custom duties to better advantage than shipping gold coin, or puachasing gold exchange on New York.

OXFORD LETTER.

Attempt to Fire the Jail--Raleigh Visitors--Lecture of C. M. Busbee, Esq,

Correspondence of the News.

OXFORD, July 10.

The rapid ringing of bells and the cry of fire about day this morning, aroused our citizens from their beds. It was soon discovered that one of the colored prisoners in the jail here by the name of Williams had attempted to burn the jail. He was incarcerated there for stealing corn. The fire created a dense smoke in the building, but was easily checked, the damage being scarcely anything.

The Hon. C. M. Busbee and family of your city are on a visit to our town Mr. Busbee delivered an Odd Fellows address at the chapel of the Orphan Asylum this evening.

His fine reputation as a speaker, and the novelty of his theme, in this community where an order of Odd Fellows was only recently established, awoke an eager desire among our people to hear him.

SECOND ANNUAL GATHERING OF INSTRUCTORS OF NORTH CAROLINA.

Three Hundred and Seventy-Five Teachers Reaping the Rich Fruits of Long Experience.

Special to the News.

CHAPEL HILL, July 9.

Last night it was very pleasant to listen to Prof Kerr's lecture on the Topography of North Carolina. The lecture was a description of the external appearance of North Carolina, and had no reference to its animal, vegetable or mineral products. Few people know anything of the position of the State.

There are four districts in the State: Mountain Plateau, Piedmont Section, Middle Section and the Eastern or Champaign region.

The lecture was delivered in a conversational style and showed a depth of learning relating to North Carolina, which few have ever possessed.

Prof. Watson delivered two lectures to-day on elocution. The hour this morning was spent in giving the sound of the tones and sub-tones, with more illustrations. In the afternoon the subject was on emphasis, inflection, slur, modulation, personation, pauses.

The address to-night was by Rev. J. Henry Smith, D. D, of Greensboro. The subject was "Little Things." He showed how the smallest circumstances had effected radical changes in history, in peace, in war, in science, in religion.

The coral reefs, like gems on the ocean's bosom, are the work of the smallest and lowest specimen of animal life. Rivers come from the smallest streams, and the mighty avalanche comes from a bit of falling snow. Yet these things are significant of the truth and power of little things, little but mighty. History, science and nature emphasize the importance of little things. Personal behavior in trifles is greatly productive of social pleasure or pain.

Little virtues in society keep the social world in order. God, in all his works, gives importance to small agents. Little things are the components and essential parts of great things, whether good or evil. They are preparation for great things. They produce or deface character. They constitute the steady and irresistible influence of habit. They are apt to be overlooked. They are within reach of all things.

Dr. Smith has the voice of an orator. His gesticulation is well-timed and graceful. His intonation is deep and his pronunciation clear and distinct. The lecture to-night was learned classic and interspersed with brilliant flights of word painting, mingled with choice selections of poetical gems. It was a rare treat and one not heard every day. I cannot close this letter without making mention of Capt. John E. Dugger of your city. During the present illness of Prof. Owens, Capt. Dugger has taken charge of his classes in Geography and Planets. I visited the recitation on Geography and was entertained. The subject was Rivers, and the peculiarities of, and the similarities of each river were pointed out. Capt Dugger has no superior as a teacher in in North Carolina and any community is exceedingly fortunate in securing him to supervise the instruction of its young. He has devoted a great portion of his life to the profession of teaching and he has been eminently successful and will continue to meet with success.

In my next I will give you the programme for the future. 375 names are now enrolled. F. D. W.

CIVILIZATION IN DANGER.

Count Schouvaloff Talks of Asiatic Hordes--He Wishes to Have Arms Withheld from Them.

It is reported that at one of the meetings of the Congress, Count Schouvaloff brought up the question of the employment of Indian troops in European warfare, and the selling of modern arms to the Asiatic peoples, especially to the Chinese. He wished, he said, to invite the Congress to look upon this subject without passion, and to regard it as affecting the interests and perhaps the very existence of European civilization.

He cited the opinion of an eminent savant, who had lately pointed out that, had the ancient Greeks possessed even the rudest of our modern arms, they could have rolled back the barbarian hordes who swept them away. But the experience of the late campaign had shown that war was no longer to be a contest in which superior physical strength and moral purpose would win victory. The Turks, armed with rifles made in the United States, and entrenched in positions chosen and fortified by military skill, had been able to hold at bay for weeks the flower of the Russian army, the best, bravest and most ardent of soldiers.

If the countless hordes of China and of India are to be permitted to arm themselves with modern weapons, and to acquire a practical knowledge of the art of modern warfare, there will be nothing to prevent them from rolling forth into Europe and crushing Christian civilization out of existence. Especially were the Mongolians to be feared from this point of view; and he invited the Congress to take the matter into serious consideration, and to deliberate upon the practicability of a league of the European powers, binding them to abstain from employing Asiatic troops in Europe, and to prevent, as far as possible, the importation of arms of precision into Asia.

Earl Beaconsfield is said to have made rather a light reply to this appeal, and to have said that at all events the subject was not at all germane to the object of the Congress, and should not now be discussed. But Count Schouvaloff's remarks made a strong impression upon Prince Bismarck and M. Waddington; and subsequently in private conversation they suggested that the subject was worthy of consideration by a congress called expressly for that purpose.

Nevada Ethics.

Virginia City Chronicle.

"Speaking of gall" remarked an Eastern printer last evening in a C street beer saloon, "talking of solid cheek, I never saw a man who had more of it than Pete Blivens, of Kansas City. Three of us used to room together there in 1872. One night in July—it was so hot that if you'd chuck water on the side of a house it would sizz like so much hot iron—we concluded to go down and sleep on one of the timber rafts on the river. Well, we got on the raft with our blankets. Just before turning in, Pete Blivens said he guessed he'd cool off by taking a swim. I knew the current would snatch him right under, but didn't want to give him any advice, and he dived off the end of the raft. The undertow caught and sent him out of sight in about three seconds. As soon as we saw that he was drowned me and the other chap went for his effects. We found $8 50 in his pants pocket and an old watch We took 'em up town and soaked the clothes for $9 and the watch for $12. then we went around town on a sort of a jamboree and spent the money. About 5 o'clock in the morning we were drinking up the last dollar with some of the boys on the Blue Corner, when who should walk in but Pete himself in an old suit of clothes that he'd borrowed of a man three miles down the river. And hang me if he did'nt demand his clothes, and the next day he was 'round dunning us for the paltry $8 50. The gall of some men's enough to paralyze a Louisiana alligator."

PENDER COUNTY.

Superior Court Session--Important Cases--Speeches of Col. Polk and Capt Galloway.

BURGAW, July 9th.

The second term of the Superior Court of this, Pender county, opened on Monday, His Honor Judge Eure presiding, with Solicitor W S. Norment, of Robeson, representing the State.

The following cases were docketed—Criminal 43. Civil 25. There are only two cases of general interest. State vs Jas. Blackburn, endicted for murdering Jno. D. Lamb, in Sampson county, on the 1st., Nov. 1877, with a hatchet and adz, with which instruments he inflicted fatal wounds, as is alleged upon slight provocation, on the head of Lamb; from the effects of which he died on the 20th Nov. Blackburn was arraigned at February Term of Sampson court pleaded guilty and upon filing the usual affidavit of inability to get justice done him in Sampson, the cast was moved to Pender and the trial see for Thursday of first week.

Eighteen witnesses are summoned for the State and five for the defence. It is thought that the case will be tried on Thursday and that a verdict will be reached that night. Able counsel are employed on both sides, and the case elicits much interest.

The other case is that of State vs. Joe Williams, from Duplin, charged with barn burning. Williams was tried at the last term of Duplin Court and found guilty, but obtained a new trial upon a technicality, and the case was removed to Pender. This cause is set for trial Wednesday.

E. T. Bland, a member of Judge Strong's law class, and a recent graduate at law, appeared before His Honor on Monday, and after taking the usual oath, was admitted to practice law in the courts of North Carolina.

Members of the bar in attendance on the court—resident, E A Thompson, E T Bland, Bruce Williams, and Col R B Fraser. Non-residents, J L Holms, Maj D J Devane, M and J D Bellamy, I J Macks, E Cantwell and Judge Russell, of New Hanover, R W Nixon, of Onslow, E W Kerr, E T Boykin, H Beaman and J L Stewart, of Sampson; J D Kerr, of Wayne, and J D Stanford and Col Stalling, of Duplin.

Judge Eure is so universally admired for his ability, pureness and impartiality on the bench, that it would be a work of supererogation to say anything in his favor as an upright judge.

On Tuesday, His Honor adjourned the court for three hours, in order to give Col. Polk and Capt. Swift Galloway an opportunity to address the large concourse of citizens assembled. These gentlemen delivered able addresses, which see elsewhere in to day's issue

Capt Swift Galloway, candidate for Solicitor of this District, being present by appointment, at the conclusion of Col. Polk's speech addressed the people for one hour and a quarter on the current political topics of the day. He reviewed the history of the Republican party, and its rule, from a national and State stand-point, for the past fifteen years, laying down as a general proposition that its vitality as an organization was grounded in utter disregard for constitutional limitations, and in uniform, persistent hatred to the South. The arguments presented to sustain this position, the whole chain of events in its history, so firmly and so compactly linked together by the able and eloquent gentleman, were perfectly overwhelming and convincing; he arraigned the prominent leaders of that party upon charges ranging from the insidisious attacks of the Phillips, Sumners, and Greeleys, of the years ago, to the perjuries of the miserable tools now disgorging before the Potter committie.

Capt. Galloway in statue is a little over six feet high, with, broad open, manly face, and carrying on his person an unmistakable mark of the true soldier, was greeted by his comerades in arms, a large number of whom were present, with that warmth and depth of fraternal feeling which is known only to those who have drank from the same canteen.

The first ten minutes of his speech were devoted to the most pathetic allusions to the reminiscenses and associations of soldier life. I cannot attempt to give his language, or to express an idea of the profound effect produced on his audience by his eloquent recital of incidents relating to the same, but I must confess that when I saw tears in his own and the eyes of his old comrades—eyes that blanched not in the face of fiery death, and heard that deep sorrowing voice of his yield under the emotions—a voice that never faltered in the wild roar of battle and of carnage, I felt that he was no less a man here, than there. He will make a thorough and systematic canvass of his district, which must result in great good to the Democratic party in the State. He is a noble standard-bearer and will be elected by an overwhelming majority.

REPUBLICANS IN FORSYTHE.

Casting About for Anything that will Win--Burglary.

Correspondence of the News.

WINSTON, July 8.

The republicans nominated candidates here last Saturday evening, and recommended Geo. B. Everett, Esq., to their brethren of Stokes, for Senator. If he fails to receive the nomination, he will be an independent. Judge Tourgee being present made a speech, and made a hit at Mr. Everett. Then the nominees were called out. Mr White, nominee for Register of Deeds, (same man that was beaten last election,) said last election day the sun rose in its usual brightness but set around a small cloud, but next election day he hoped that cloud will be dispersed, but an old Democrat remarked that evening that next election day the sun of his political glory will set in the midnight gloom of eternal night, leaving him in outer darkness forever.

Mr. Everett made a warm speech. Said that Tourgee's assertion that he (Everett) wanted to run within a plat-sorm was news to him Announced his intention to run, and we saw several old Republicans faces grow into EXCLAMATION POINTS, when the speaker closed by saying to the Republicans that he would give them a platform that would add dignity and honor to the party. An old rad was heard to exclaim in the bitterness of his soul, "I wonder where I have been all this time?"

Saturday night the store of S. D. Franklin & Co., was broken into and about $10 in specie stolen, also some jewelry. It is stange to to say this jewelry is a part of the same which was stolen from Welfare & Co., in Salem, by Thadeus Davis, who was convicted of burglary and sentenced to be hanged, his sentence afterwards being commuted to imprisonment for life. No clue to the thief.

The Y. M. C. A. had a bible reading in the M. E. Church Sunday evening, with remarks from several of their members interspersed with splendid music. The exercises were very fine, and will doubtless be productive of good.

FACING THE TRAMPS.

Illinois on the War Path---A Gloomy Outlook in the West.

Special Dispatch to the Charleston Journal of Commerce.

DES MOINES, IOWA, July 8.—The alarming prevalence of tramps throughout the State and their high handed depredations in some quarters has induced Governor Grear to issue a proclamation instructing the Sheriffs of the counties that under the statutes they have full power to call out the posse comitatus or military if necessary. He also calls upon the supervisors of counties to obey the law and provide work with ball and chain for tramps when arrested. He advises prompt action in all cases. He is well advised and prepared for any emergency. At Marshalltown the tramps caused great trouble, and the Mayor asked the aid of Major Bell's militia company, which was furnished, and a band of forty men were escorted out of the city. The leader made a violent speech, threatening that Marshalltown should be burned. He was arrested and placed in jail. Some of the gang took possession of the train at Albion, and held it until the arrival of the Sheriff and thirty men.

The Commissioner of Agriculture in Pender.

Star Correspondence.

STANFORD, July 9, 1878.

As had been previously announced, our Commissioner of Agriculture, Col. L. L. Polk, was present to-day, and being appropriately introduced by Dr. S. S. Satchwell, proceeded to deliver one of the most useful and instructive addresses to which it has ever been our good fortune to listen. The Colonel has completely captivated the hearts of the farmers of Pender, and the day will long be remembered by them. He has taken the right steps, coming among the people, and of one thing he may rest assured—that he will always be remembered as the farmer's friend. At the conclusion of the address a resolution was passed thanking Colonel Polk and pledging the county of Pender to support the Department of Agriculture.

About nine years ago, James W. Perkins left his father's house, at Newport, Carteret county, N. C., to seek a classical education. He started with less than fifteen dollars as his capital. He obtained profitable employment, and without assistance from home, he has paid his way through the University of Kentucky, where he graduated on the 11th of June, being but about twenty-five dollars in debt when he graduated. This is another illustration of the adage. "Where there's a will, there's a way.

If Hayes cannot make a speech let him declaim, or pray, or take up a collection. If he persists in this sort of thing, a long suffering public will rise in its might and demand a third term for Grant, who made no speeches, or look out for a second edition of Andy Johnson, who spoke all the time, and was always entertaining if not always sensible.

Carteret Crops.

Beaufort Atlantic.

The wheat crop in the western portion of Carteret has been harvested and we regret to state that not more than half a crop has been housed. Cotton is improving and the corn looks well. Last week we visited the western portion of Carteret and were gratified to learn the crops were in so flourishing a condition. Our farmers in that section are in fine spirits and should the weather continue propitious the yield will be an abundant one.

The Union County Primary Election----Full Legislative and County Ticket Nominated.

Correspondence of the News.

MONROE, July 8.

As predicted by me in my letter of Saturday, the following ticket was nominated in the Primary Elections held in this county on Saturday last: C. Austin, Senator; D. A. Covington, Representative; J. P. Harris, Sheriff; Jas. C. Huey, Superior Court Clerk; C. N. Simpson, Register of Deeds; C. C. McLorty, Treasurer; Jas. Small, Coroner; L. M. Secrest, Surveyor.

The election passed off quietly. Nothing like a full vote was polled, not more than one half of the country people turning out. So far as I can learn there seems to be general satisfaction with the result of the election, and with the manner in which it was conducted. Friends of some of the defeated candidates are dissatisfied, and threaten to bring out independent candidates, but the majority of the people will abide by the decision of the Primary. The nominee of Union for the Senate, C. Austin, will go before the convention which assembles to-morrow at Polkton, Anson county, (which elects the Senator conjointly with Union,) with his full strength, as the nominee of Union county, and will probably be nominated.

Remains of a Mastodon.

Beaufort Atlantic.

Some ditchers unearthed the upper jawbone of a Mastodon, near Newport, Carteret county, N. C., in the early part of June. The teeth are firmly imbedded in the jaw, and measure seven and a half inches in length, and four inches across. As the teeth are very perfect, it is quite probable the animal was young at the time of his demise. The roof of the mouth is twenty seven inches wide. Numerous portions of the skeleton have been exhumed, but they are in a state of decay.

For all diseases of the blood, we do not know of any better remedy than Dr. Bull's Blood Mixture.

Destruction by Floods.

By Telegraph to the News.

CINCINNATI, July 10.—A special from Russell Station, on the Cleveland & Tuscarawas Valley and Wheeling Railway, states that a terrific rain storm there swept away 500 feet of track, and that several bridges and small buildings also destroped.

How The Old Thing Works.

Lumberton Robesonian.

Twelve months ago the Radical party in this county thought itself dead, and was almost willing to come over to us bodily. Now that it thinks our party not exactly a unit, radicalism begins to put on a bold front.

'Tae devil got sick, the devil a saint would be—
The devil got well, a devil the saint was he."

Honesty to the Front.

Washington Post.

Civil Service Reformer Zach Chandler arrived in the city yesterday, to help Brother Gormau direct the Republican campaign. The Republicans never call "Old Zach" to the front unless they consider their case desperate. Mr. Schurz might as well resign, or be resigued, for Zachariah means business.

Exaltation.

Nice little girl, Molly, nice little girl, but really you oughtn't to have tried to keep up with our boys, even if you are pretty fast, and did not come from California.

Liberatad Cubans.

By Cable to the News.

HAVANA, July 10.—One hundred and forty-three Cubans, who were transported to Spain during the insurrection, have been liberated there.

Arrivals.

By the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, one car load Maine Ice and one of Timothy hay from St. Louis.

By the North Carolina Railroad, one car load corn, one of fodder, one of N. C. Hay, and one of Richmond meal, chops, Bran and Peas. All of the above arrived and for sale by by Job Osborne.

For the News.

There is one thing during this campaign that all the candidates can agree upon. Democrats, Republicans or Independents, and that is, that Brewster's is the head quarters for hardware, stoves, tin ware, house furnishing goods, iron, steel and nails, paints, varnishes etc. etc. And we want each and every one to proclaim this fact from the stump in every precinct in the county and every county in the State. *

Fresh Eggs.

A nice lot just received on consignment, at W. A. Myatt's, shipments of Butter, Chickens and Eggs, constantly coming in.

One of the best assortments of cigars in the city to be found at Simpson's.

Mineral waters, soda, root beer, and the celebrated Appolinaris water, for sale by Wm. Simpson, druggist.

The greatest variety of toilet articles at Simpson's. tf*

The Tobacco Tax.

The prolonged agitation of the tobacco tax question has undoubtedly wrought much injury to the trade, but the more that is said about Barham's Infallible Pile Cure the better it will be for those suffering from Hemorrhoids or Piles. It never fails to releive. Try a box. Price $1.00, sent post paid. Made by the Barham Pile Cure Co., Durham, N. C. 6t.

One thousand Telephone Shirts at 65 cents each, just received at Woollcott's Open Front Store, Wilmington Street. These Shirts are made of Androscoggin Bleaching, and the bosoms are pure linen. The lot is a consignment, and must be closed out. *

Something Worth Attention.

Consigners of county produce should ship to A. C. Sanders & Co., because they are the only commission merchants in Raleigh. They do not buy at all on their own account, but make prompt returns, at the same prices they sell at, which are the highest this market affords. *

Ice, Ice.

To live through the summer without using ice is almost an impossibility. Blake's ice-house is conveniently located, just opposite the market, and he is prepared to furnish that greatest of summer delicacies in any quantity. Don't forget Blake when ice is needed. *

Blindly Groping

For some medicinal alcoholic resuscitant of physical energy, which should take the place of the heady and frequently adulterated stimulants of commerce, the medical practitioners of a quarter of a century ago were elect ified on first observing the reviving effects upon the system of a tonic then recently introduced, but which has since become the most popular medicine sold on this continent, viz.: Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Their astonishment and admiration were increased when experience further disclosed that this botanic remedy effected results which the mineral drugs of the pharmacopoeia often utterly fail d to produce,—among others, the permanent restoration of vigor, the removal of digestive, secretive and evacuative irregularities, and the eradication and prevention of periodic fevers. Speedy recognition of the merits of the Bitters by unprejudiced and enlightened physicians naturally followed this revelation of medical facts, which have since received such frequent and positive confirmation. jy 9 6t

Weakly Persons Wine.

Old and infirm persons need some mild tonic or gentle stimulant, especially in warm weather. The wine made at Speer's Mount Prospect Vineyards, in New Jersey, called Speer's Port Grape Wine, is used in the Atlantic States as the best tonic wine known, and is regarded as pure, and is very popular among physicians. jy9 6t

A QUEER HEAD-PANTRYMAN.—The Jesse Hoyt, a famous New York Steamboat, used to have for head pantryman a bent and crippled darkey, whos face was as full of humor as his form was of kinks and knots. His name was Robert Smith, and his malady was chronic rheumatism. He tried Giles' Liniment Iodide Ammonia for a week of the present winter and next season intends to astonish his old acquaintances on the Hoyt by his appearance as a sound man.

ELECTION, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 5TH.

Congressional Convention.

A Convention of the Democrats and Conservatives of the Fourth District, will be held in the city of Raleigh, on Thursday the 22nd day of August next for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Congress. Each county will be entitled to one vote for every one hundred votes and fractional part over fifty, given for Gov. Vance in 1876.

By order of District Ex. Committee,
H. A. LONDON, Jr.
July 2, 1878. Chairman.

The Democratic papers in the District will please copy.

THE Robesonian tells in another place how it is with the Republican party there. They had to all intents and purposes abandoned the field a year ago, as they have given up the State contest now. But the fancied security of the Democrats in Robeson emboldened division in their ranks, and Radicalism holds up its head there again. So it will be in all the counties where there is any Radical strength. Once let the Democrats divide, and the Radicals will come to the front. Let Independents go forward and plant the seeds of Democratic division now, and two years hence there will be reaped a plentiful Radical harvest. Destroy, or in any degree weaken the organization of the Democracy in the State in this campaign, and in that of one thousand eight hundred and eighty, the Republicans will feel that they can carry everything before them. Through independence of party, a mere faction of the Legislature, when that body was two-thirds Democratic, placed it in the power of the Republicans to dictate a United States Senator; and what a commentary that was—a humiliation and a disgrace to the Democratic party of North Carolina. Under like conditions the same thing will be repeated, not alone in the Legislature, but in the State election two years hence, the Congressional districts and the counties. Democrats of North Carolina, Independence, under Radical auspices, or the auspices of those who have profited by division in the party heretofore, means Radical triumph and control of the State in the future. Independence of the Democratic party—defying its organization and resisting the majority, means the Destruction of the Democratic party, absolute and inevitable.

Pender County.

The Pender correspondent of the News writes that the new county is this year a candidate for Democratic success. The Republicans have a small majority in the county, but this it is determined to overcome. A bold, manly, patriotic spirit animates the Democratic masses of Pender, which enabled them to triumph over extraordinary difficulties in the way of separate county government a few years ago. This pluck, energy and determination will place Pender along side of her Democratic sisters, Duplin and Sampson.

The following county ticket was nominated on Monday last:—For the House of Representatives, Thomas J. Armstrong, Jr; Sheriff, A. H. Paddison; Clerk, William T. Bannerman; Register of Deeds, Lewis Howard; Coronor, Henry Murphy. The convention recommended as the Democratic candidate for the Senatorial district of Pender and New Hanover, that talented and rising young lawyer of Wilmington, Frank H. Darby, Esq. No doubt the Democracy of New Hanover will gladly second the nomination of this popular favorite, and if so he will at once enter upon a vigorous canvass, and in company with the worthy nominees in Pender, Mr. Armstrong, a young farmer of prominence and high character, will thoroughly canvass that county, and remain on the stump in his district until the day of election

The people of Pender in their county convention took occasion to express anew their devotion to education, to progress, to agricultural advancement, and internal improvement. A warm endorsement was given to the prospected scheme of a railroad from Burgaw down into Onslow, convict labor to be used in its construction, and much interest expressed in the magnificent enterprise of a ship canal by the general government along the coast of North Carolina. Thanks were tendered our Senafors and representatives in Congress for their efficient services in local and general measures for the State, including appropriations for our harbors, rivers, and for a survey of the proposed ship canal.

The convention re-affirmed the platform of the county Democratic Convention of May last, that rotation in office is a cherished principle of Democracy, and that farmers and the industrial classes should have a larger and better representation in the State and national legislation, but at the same time expressed adherence to that great Democratic principle of accepting the will of the majority as the rule of the party, and standing by the regular nominees as the soul and body of political organization.

His Honor, Judge Eure, is holding court in Pender this week, and on Tuesday the energetic and efficient Commissioner of Agriculture, Colonel Polk, arrived and addressed the people on the subject of Agricultural progress and development, a subject which no people are more alive to than they of Pender county.

Engineering Achievements.

Referring again to the work on the Western North Carolina Railroad, as Colonel Cameron has noted it from careful observation of its progress, the reader is still more impressed with the magnitude of the undertaking.

The grade of the road across the Blue Ridge averages one hundred and four feet to the mile, and he says it is absolutely free from straight lines; that on no foot is there a level, and not a yard of the rail through these mountain fastnesses rests upon a natural surface, but a constant succession of cuts and fills on the most imposing scale, in some places the fills being two hundred and fifty feet high, temporary trestling being used made of timber, brought down the mountain side by an iron rail tramway to a saw mill erected by President Wilson on the flats of Round Knob. The cuts are sometimes through solid granite, and then through earth, and attain a depth of a hundred to a hundred and fifteen feet. At one of these cuts occurred during the past few months a mountain slide from the steep slope above, and a movement of several acres of earth began toward the cut, rendering it impossible to keep it open. Heavy timbers were put in to protect the cut, but they snapped like pipe stems. In this emergency President Wilson had recourse to the California mode of sluicing. A mountain stream was brought into requisition, its course diverted and the flow of water turned upon the mass of sliding earth, through canals and troughs, to a point two hundred feet above the cut, from which it could be operated upon with effect, by hose pipe. The earth has been melted away like snow, and sent down mill creek. It is estimated that, in six weeks the work of five hundred men for six years will have been accomplished by less than a dozen laborers. The slide has already ceased, and in a short time the grade through the cut will have been re-established.

There remains to be completed in crossing the Blue Ridge, about ten lineal feet of blasting in one short tunnel, two other short ones being finished, and most of the trestles and cuts so far advanced as to admit of track-laying within two months, so that by the middle of September, the whole convict force of four hundred and seventy-five can be transferred to the west side of the Swannanoa or main tunnel, which is nineteen hundred feet long, three hundred of which remain to be completed. Much of the grading of the west side has been done; the balance of the work is comparatively light, and the President and Directors hope that the next Legislature will find them in Asheville, from whence the completion of the line down the French Broad to the Tennessee line is mere child's play, and will not consume a year.

No more difficult feat of engineering than that displayed on the Western North Carolina Railroad has been performed on the American continent, and it has been accomplished by native North Carolina genius. The road when completed will stand a monument to North Carolina pluck, energy and intelligence.

The Robeson Nominations.

The News correspondent at Lumberton writes concerning D. P. McEachern, Esq., the nominee for Senator from Robeson and Columbus, that he is a high-toned Scotchman, a fine scholar, a graphic writer, and withal a gentleman of the highest type, one that will be an honor to his district; and there is predicted for him a proud career in the Senate. Mr. McEachern is a graduate of the University, and has been engaged in the pursuit of farming. He was at work on his farm when his nomination was made to the Senate; thus compelling the office to seek him.

For the House of Representatives, Mr. A. C. Oliver was nominated on the first ballot, having received every vote. Decidedly popular in the county, he will poll the full strength of the paryt. He is a farmer and was loth to leave the fields for politics, but deeming it his duty to respond to the call of the people, he sacrifices his own inclinations to the public service.

For the other Reprepsentative, Frank McNiell. Esq., was nominated. Mr. McNiel is a young man, having recently entered upon the practice of the law in partnership with Thomas A McNeill, Esq., who represented the county in 1870-72-73-74. He is a young man of great energy, is possessed of a cultivated mind, and will take a good position as a legislator. Mr. McNeill is a graduate of Davidson College. These gentlemen, it is certain, will "hold Robeson and save the State."

The Campaign Opened.

But three weeks now remain to the August election, and by this time every Democrat knows for whom he is to cast his vote in the county, district and State elections. By this time the campaign has fully opened throughout the State, and whatever work Democrats have to do they must do quickly.

Taking the State, district, county and legislative tickets in review, the Democracy has never presented better tickets to its voters throughout the State, and the full support of an undivided party should respond on the first day of August. There exist, as a matter of course, some differences of opinion in localities, the preferences of all have not been consulted, and doubtless the very best man has not, in every instance, been nominated. But Democrats should remember that we are fighting that battles of Democracy, not individuals, that the great aim and object is to perpetuate the power of the Democratic party, and that secured all mere differences within the party can be amicably and satisfactorily arranged. For the sake of success and safety we must present an undivided front. An army cannot re-organize while in line of battle, nor is it a good rule to swap horses while crossing the stream. The conventions have been held, and their results announced. It is too late to remedy any defect of action now, and it will not do to allow the party to suffer defeat, Let all matters of dissatisfaction adjourn over until another time. Let all go in to give the party a good win, whatever may be thought of the propriety of having selected the individual.

The News knows of but one safe rule for the guidance of Democratic voters, and that is to support the party nominee. The objections to uniformly pursuing this course in cases wherein a nomination is deemed not to have been fairly secured, and the nominee not regarded as altogether a worthy man, are appreciated. Notwithstanding, there is no safety in departing from the rule of standing by the party nominee, for he is the representative of the party, and to defeat him, or suffer him defeated is to have the party beaten. It must seldom happen that the people, if they attend their township and county meetings, can fail to obtain the choice of their majority. But when this shall sometimes happen, is it not better to submit to a temporary wrong than by resistance and opposition endanger the party success, and thereby expose the State to the dangers of Radicalism, from whose evils she but so lately escaped? The question of duty to the party, as the guardian of the State, should be the first great question with the people. Mere personal matters can be better adjusted after the victory is won, and all danger passed.

The campaign and its results in this State this year bear most significantly on the grand campaign of two years hence. If we do not fully preserve the fruits of our last victory, and maintain the harmony and efficiency of party organization which prevailed in 1876, we shall not enter the race of 1880 in good trim for success, and if we fail in that contest all is lost. Every effort of the past ten years will have gone for nothing, and our last condition shall be infinitely worse than the first. As one vote only was wanted to decide the last presidential election, it may occur that the ten votes of North Carolina shall determine the fate of the nation in 1880. If they shall be cast for the Democracy, every Democrat must do his duty now.

THE Wake county campaign begins to-day. The candidates of both parties will be in the field steadily now until the election. Let this day also witness the beginning of real, live, active, united work on the part of all the people composing the Democracy of Wake. It requires good work to redeem the county from radical rule, and the cause is one that should enlist every patriotic heart. The candidates themselves cannot perform all the labor of a campaign like this. They will do their full duty; will visit every township and speak to the people, but the residents of every locality must see to it that the township work is done, and well done. See to it that every Democratic voter registers, and on the day of election see that all are at the polls. If any one is unable to walk to the polling places let it be seen to that conveyances are at hand to take them. There are just three weeks of work now before us, but they are weeks of earnest work. The campaign is short, let it be a sharp and decisive one, on the part of the Democracy. The County and Township Executive Committees, have, or ought to have their work well in hand. They are familiar with every foot of ground, and with every voter. They have been invested with the responsible duty of conducting the Democracy through this important campaign, important because it is preliminary to that of 1880, which will be the most momentous political struggle that this country has ever witnessed. Selected on account of their thorough knowledge of the county, and for the ability displayed in the management of former political contests, the executive committee of Wake county, and those of the townships hold the destinies of the campaign in their hands. They are too well known for their deeds in the past to admit of a doubt that they will omit any duty now. So let the people, the great source of all power, and the main-spring of every action, stand by and hold up the hands of their committees, and the committees will hold up the hands of the candidates, and the candidates will win the day. A good send off and luck be with you throughout this campaign, Democrats of Wake county.

BEAUTY: OR THE
Secret of a Fair Face.
AN ITEM OF INTREST TO EVERY LADY WHO DESIRES TO BE MORE BEAUTIFUL THAN SHE NOW IS.

Unfortunately no one woman in a hundred, subjected to the whims of an American climate possesses that basis and starting point of real beauty—a pure and clear complexion.

What nature has thus denied, art must be called upon to furnish.

It can be done; it is done daily. Prof. W. E. Hagan placed beauty within the reach of every unblessed daughter of Eve when he discovered that surprising article known in fashionable circles as the true secret of beauty, and called

MAGNOLIA BALM

The MAGNOLIA BALM is a sure device for creating a pure and blooming complexion.
It conceals all natural blemishes in the most surprising and effective manner.
It removes all roughness eruptions, redness blotches, freckles, and tan with magical power.
It drives away all evidences of fatigue and excitement.
It makes the plainest face beautiful.
It gives the complexion a dazzling purity and makes the neck, face, and arms appear graceful, rotund, and plump.
It makes a matron of 35 or 40 look not more than 20 years old, and changes the rustic maiden into a cultivated city belle.
The Magnolia Balm removes all blemishes and conceals every drawback to beauty; and while it is as harmless as water, it is so lifelike in its effects that the closest observer cannot detect its use.
Ladies who want to make themselves attractive can make an absolute certainty of it by using HAGAN'S MAGNOLIA BALM, and we know of no other way. It is the cheapest preparation in the world, all things considered, and may be had at any drug store.

TESTIMONIAL.

The success which the Kenmore High School has achieved under the energetic and conscientious administration of the Principal and his able Assistant, and the preparation and training of its pupils, who have entered the University of Virginia, have fully justified the recommendation of this excellent School to the public, at its beginning. Regard it as a very successful educational foundation, and I trust it will continue for many years to do its good work for our State and country.

The Bingham School,

Mebaneville, N. C., surpasses all other similar Schools in the South: 1st, in age; 2d, in the character of its buildings; 3d, in numbers; 4th, in area of patronage; 5th, in ability to provide profitable employment for its proficient pupils; and 6th, while other expenses are rather below the average, this North Carolina School commands somewhat higher tuition fees than any other institution of learning of any grade, for males, in the Southern States. These facts make other testimonials unnecessary.

——The city was quiet yesterday, as was evinced by the total absence of callers at the Mayer's levee. No doubt His Honor was gratified at their failure to appear.

——The county canvass begins today, the opening speeches being made at Utley's, Middle Creek township. The time of the election is not distant, only three weeks away.

——The Raleigh Silver Cornet Band, Prof. M. Thompson leader, has now sufficiently progressed to furnish good music. They will give a concert in the capitol square a few evenings hence.

——We have sent a special correspondent to Bald Mountain, to take observations of that native amateur volcano, which now seems to be making up for its lengthy quiescence by a fresh outbreak.

—— Old Probs. promised rain yesterday, but failed to keep his word. The man who can calmly pass through this term without a murmur may consider himself duly prepared for a later and a hotter state of existence.

—— Another excursion to Beaufort is in prospectu, besides the one on the 22d inst. Bradley, general manager of last season's excursions, will take charge of one on the 6th of August. The party will leave Tuesday and return on Saturday.

——The well at the Capital square is being cleaned out, the water having acquired an unpleasant taste. It would be well if Col. Turner had jurisdiction over the city wells, for in such case the water they contain would be made tolerably fit for use at least.

——The exceeding quietness of the city is perhaps attributable to the laziness caused by the high temperature. This is all that saved a vendor of thermometers yesterday. He offered his wares to a man in a saloon, who was about to 'fire him out," deeming it an insult in such weather, but his movements were too deliberate and the seller escaped once more.

——Two countrymen who had indulged in so much of the ardent as to render them boisterous, were halted yesterday, while returning to their woodland home, seated in a wagon. One submitted quietly to arrest, but the other, a strapping greenhorn, resisted vigorously, attempting to castigate the officer with his whip. All to no avail, for both soon made the acquaintance of the rustic seats of the guard house.

Appointed.

Hon. Daniel R. Goodloe, of Warrenton, has been appointed Supervisor of United States Internal Revenue for this State.

Daily Mail.

A daily mail route has been established between Halifax and Scotland Neck, service on the same to commence October 1 t. The route is via Dawson's X roads. We congratulate the many Readers of the News in that section.

Paid the Loss.

Last spring the building of the Wesleyan Female College, at Murfreesboro, was destroyed by fire. On it was held a policy of insurance of $3,000, by the North Carolina Home Fire Insurance Company. After proper adjustment this loss has been settled by the company.

Shooting Affair in Henderson.

We learn from a gentleman from Henderson that a shooting scrape occurred four miles southeast of that place last night, under the following circumstances. Charles Williams, with half dozen aliases, from Charlotte county, Virginia was charged with breaking into a store house and stealing goods therefrom; the goods were traced to the house of his wife, (who is said to be his third wife) recovered and identified. The constable and a posse of six men armed with a warrant for the arrest of Williams, went to the house of his wife, last night. One of the posse—W. A. Phelps, came upon Williams outside the house and demanded his surrender, whereupon he fired upon Phelps with a large repeater, inflicting a severe if not fatal wound in the right breast, passing through the lung. Williams was then fired upon by one of the posse with a double barrel gun, firing both barrels, Williams returned the fire and ran—firing as he ran, then all the party fired on him promiscously, as far as known without effect. Williams in his running flight wounded two of the posse, Constable S. A. Hughes slightly through the thigh, and Mr. Hoyle, in the face. Williams made good his escape and is still at large.

Dime Party and Musical Festival.

The citizens of Raleigh are cordially invited to attend the dime party and musical festival to be given by Hickman Lodge of Good Templars this, Thursday, evening at Metropolitan Hall. The Lodge is in debt and the ladies have prepared this entertainment with the view of liquidating the same. Admission only ten cents, and only ten cents for each article for sale, with a musical concert free of charge. Ice cream, cakes, lemonade, ice cream and peaches, milk and peaches, frozen peaches and milk, and all the fruits of the season. Let the efforts of these noble ladies be well patronized.

Had Him There.

Among the institutions of the city is an aged, black, blind mendicant, who unceasingly asks alms and breathes a "God bless you," after. The other day this beggar accosted a wit, who told him he could surely see, else why could he walk up to him so directly, and ask for currency. He thought the question was a direct one, but the answer proved to be more so. The response of the venerable asker of arms was, "Boss, I declare I didn't see you, I only smelled you."

A Narrow Escape.

Mr. John Mangum has been employed in hauling, with a two horse wagon, between the city and the plumbago mines. On the wagon with him yesterday moruing sat his son, aged five years. A jolt of the wagon caused the little fellow to fall off. He rolled under the wheels before the horses could be stopped. A wheel passed so near his head as to tear off his right ear, besides bruising him severely. A physician was sent for, who sewed on the ear, pronouncing the injuries received to be of a nature not dangerous.

Examiner of Teachers.

Capt. John E. Dugger, the officer who makes the necessary examinations of applicants for places as teachers in the county public schools, being now in attendance upon the State Normal School at Chapel Hill, his place is temporarily filled by Prof. C. B. Fairchild. That gentleman will examine applicants for positions on Wednesday and Saturday afternoons of each week, between the hours of 2 and 6. Those desiring to apply will take notice and govern themselves accordingly.

Penitentiary Notes.

The Board of Directors of this Institution are in session. They have decided to send fifty more convicts to the Western N. C. Railway.

The convict Tighiman Cranford, who attempted to escape on Tuesday, and was cooped up in the stockade around the quary, has not as yet been either seen or captured. It is probable that he has escaped from the enclosure. The convicts were kept in the cells all day, while diligent search was made for the lost one.

R. C. Badger et al. vs. W. A. Daniel et al. from Halifax; argument begun on Monday was resumed, and upon its conclusion court adjourned until this (Thursday) morning at 9 o'clock, when the call of appeals from the 6th District will be resumed.

Before the Normalites.

Major Seaton Gales will deliver an address before the students at the State Normal School at Chapel Hill, next Tuesday evening. The rare powers of eloquence possessed by Major Gales, combined with the stores of knowledge he possesses, will make the occasion both profitable and pleasant.
